FAMILY ACTIVITY

A little gift for Santa

日本ではサンタさんは枕元にプレゼントを置くのが一般的ですが、欧米では、クリスマスツリーの下に置いていきます。そこで子ども達は、クリスマスイブに、サンタさんが少しでも休めるようにと、クッキーとミルクをツリーの近くに置いて寝ます。そしてクリスマスの朝、食べかけのクッキーと飲みかけのミルクを見て、サンタさんが来てくれたことを喜ぶのです。今年はお子様とそんなクリスマスを過ごしてみたいかですか？

On Christmas morning, children find their Christmas presents next to their pillows in Japan. In Europe and the United States, presents are under the Christmas tree. Traditionally, a glass of milk and cookies are provided at the base of the Christmas tree for Santa to take a break on Christmas Eve. The next morning, children get excited to find out that milk and cookies might have been eaten by Santa. Why not try this story and have a fun Christmas with your children this year?

In Europe, where many people enjoy soccer in summer and Alpine skiing in winter, Austria in particular is known as the "Alpine Kingdom" and is overwhelmingly popular among the people. Alpine skiers are respected as national heroes, just like professional baseball and soccer players in Japan.
